Pensamientos

Esta pasando muchas cosas en Austin Texas. Empezamos con el "leadership award" que otorgaron a George P. Bush hace poco. It has certainly set off a fire storm of concern and protest. Primeramente por el simple hecho de que el es un Bush. If it had been any other person, I don't think there would have been such a reaction. Cómo quiera, ya pasó and now we wait for an additional fallout. On pages 14 and 15, you can read some of our concerns and what has appeared in print. Rest assured that there is more to come on this front.

Cambiando de Temas

Es una tristeza ver lo que está pasando en el Texas Legislature. Many of the issues that are of concern to community activists like education, immigration and the like are being revisited by the Republican majorites in both the House and the Senate.

Those who are close to these issues find themselves going to the capitol to testify and lobby. Just the other night those who support in-state tuition for immigrants stayed until 1:00am or so to speak in support of continuing the practice. In the end, the Republicans voted to move the bill that stop this practice forward to its death.

As long the Republicans are in charge, we should expect to see favorable legislation come out of the Texas Legislature. Until people realize that they need to get off their butts and turn out to vote, one can expect the undoing of a lot of progressive legislation. It's not that complicated.

Cambiando de Temas

Ted Cruz announces that he is going to run for President of the United States. This is good news for Democrats. Why? Because Ted Cruz is telling you already, up front, in your face, what he intends to do if elected. How could anyone ask for a better opponent? Fasten your seat como quien dice. It's going to be a wild ride!

Cambiando de Temas

"Be Careful for What You Wish For" Many years ago during the Chicano Movement, we were big on the idea of electing more people with Spanish Surnames to public office. Over the years more people with Spanish Surnames have in fact been elected to public office. The only thing we never imagined is that they would be Republicans!

Some people have said that Latinos are really, deep down more Republican than they care to admit.

Alfredo R. Santos c/s
Editor and Publisher

I don't know if that is true or not. But what I do know is that the ways things are going, the Republican Party is going to be running the state for a while, a long while.

My name is Melanie Oldham. I live in Freeport and have worked in the Freeport area as a physical therapist for 15 years. I'm concerned about the lack of good basic city services that we all pay TAXES for.

We need a MAYOR who will in a timely, well planned manner, fix our old water/sewer lines, streets, alleys, drainage and build sidewalks for the safety of our children. I would earmark appropriate funding for this infrastructure in every city budget.

I will be a Mayor who has INTEGRITY and works for a QUALITY OF LIFE for all citizens, including having CLEAN AIR and WATER. Call me and I will listen and ACT on comments/concerns as YOUR MAYOR. (979) 481-2723

New CD by Mariachi Vargas de Tecalitlán

El 1o de septiembre, el Mariachi Vargas de Tecalitlán lanzó su más reciente producción, el disco titulado Boleros, Baladas y Bachatas. La grabación fue hecha esta primavera en el estudio capitalino del ex Buki, Joél Solís. Siete de los 14 arreglos son de Carlos Martínez, cuatro de Miguel Ángel Barrón, dos de Pepe Martínez Jr. y uno de Rubén Fuentes. El disco contiene siete boleros, tres baladas y cuatro bachatas, géneros que mezcla y juxtapone de manera interesante y poco tradicional.

El disco incluye obras de compositores oriundos de México, Cuba, Argentina, España y la ciudad de Nueva York. El repertorio data desde los años cincuenta, como "La Gloria Eres Tú" y "Contigo en la Distancia," hasta éxitos muy recientes como "Darte un Beso." Los cantos se reparten entre el impresionante equipo vocal que tiene el grupo actualmente

On September 1st, Mariachi Vargas de Tecalitlán released the group's latest album, Boleros, Baladas y Bachatas. The recording was made earlier this year in the Mexico City studio of ex-Los Bukis member Joél Solís. Seven of the arrangements are by Carlos Martínez, four by Miguel Ángel Barrón, two by Pepe Martínez Jr., and one by Rubén Fuentes. The CD contains seven boleros, three baladas, and four bachatas — genres it mixes and juxtaposes in interesting and untraditional ways.

Songwriters from Mexico, Cuba, Argentina, Spain, and New York City are represented on this album. The repertory dates all the way from the 1950s, like "La Gloria Eres Tú" and "Contigo en la Distancia," up to very recent hits like "Darte un Beso." Vocal chores are shared equitably between the group's impressive vocal lineup

$500,000 Mellon Grant Aims to Boost Minority Faculty Representation

More students from underrepresented minority groups will be encouraged to pursue academic careers thanks to a $500,000 grant from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation to The University of Texas at Austin.

Renewable every four years, the grant will support the establishment of a Mellon Mays Undergraduate Fellowship program in the Department of Mexican American and Latina/o Studies (MALS), a new department established last summer in the College of Liberal Arts. The first class of five Mellon Fellows will begin the program this summer.

Dr. Nicole M. Guidotti-Hernández.

The grant program seeks to increase the number of students from underrepresented minority groups, such as African Americans and Hispanics, in Ph.D. programs that prepare students for faculty-level careers in U.S. colleges and universities. The program is not intended to support students who intend to go on to medical school, law school or other professional schools.

“This grant reinforces our commitment to fostering academic excellence and building diversity,” said Richard Flores, senior associate dean for academic affairs in

UT Austin’s College of Liberal Arts. “Our commitment to both of these principles is extremely strong and central to the mission of this institution. Partnering with the Mellon Foundation to host this program allows us advance our shared goals in the building of the 21st century professoriate.”

The Mellon Mays Undergraduate Fellowship Program began in 1988 as the Mellon Minority Undergraduate Fellowship, created by the Mellon Foundation to help remedy the shortage of faculty of color in higher education. Since its founding, the program has produced more than 500 Ph.D.s from institutions such as Yale, Stanford, Harvard and Rice.

For more information, contact: University Communications, Office of the President, 512 471 3151; David Ochsner, College of Liberal Arts, 512-475-9712; Nicole M. Guidotti-Hernández, Department of Mexican American and Latina/o Studies, 512-232-6313.

“We are delighted that the Mellon Foundation identified UT Austin as one of the select public universities to be awarded this prestigious undergraduate fellowship program,” said department chair Nicole M. Guidotti-Hernández. “By offering early research opportunities to the most qualified students—those with outstanding academic records who might not historically consider the pursuit of a Ph.D. and a faculty position—we can transform higher education institutions so that they more directly reflect the populations they serve.”

“We are poised to train the best researchers and future leaders for the U.S. academy and beyond,” Guidotti-Hernández said, citing the launch of the new department and the diversity of UT Austin’s student body, which is more than half non-white.

Pew Research Center's 2013

National Survey of Latinos. Hispanics in the United States

About six-in-ten U.S. adult Hispanics (62%) speak English or are bilingual, according to an analysis of the Pew Research Center's 2013 National Survey of Latinos. Hispanics in the United States break down into three groups when it comes to their use of language: 36% are bilingual, 25% mainly use English and 38% mainly use Spanish. Among those who speak English, 59% are bilingual.

Majority of U.S. Latinos Use English or are Bilingual Latino adults who are the children of immigrant parents are most likely to be bilingual. Among this group, 50% are bilingual, according to our 2013 survey. As of 2012, Latinos with immigrant parents (defined as those born outside the U.S. or those born in Puerto Rico) made up roughly half (48%) of all U.S.-born Hispanics. By comparison, a third (35%) of Hispanic immigrants are bilingual, as are a quarter (23%) of those with U.S.-born parents.

Widespread bilingualism has the potential to affect future generations of Latinos, a population that is among the fastest growing in the nation. Our 2011 survey showed that Latino adults valued both the ability to speak English and to speak Spanish. Fully 87% said Latino immigrants need to learn English to succeed. At the same time, nearly all (95%) said it is important for future generations of U.S. Hispanics to speak Spanish.

Bilingualism is measured in our National Surveys of Latinos by asking Hispanic adults to self-assess their language abilities. Respondents rated their ability to carry on a conversation in Spanish and how well they can read a book or newspaper written in Spanish. The same questions are posed about their English-speaking ability. Bilingualism is linked to age. Some 42% of Hispanics ages 18 to 29 are bilingual. That share falls to about a third among Hispanics ages 30 to 49 and ages 50 to 64, but rises again, to 40%, among those ages 65 and older.

Due in part to bilingualism, in 2013 Spanish was the most spoken non-English language in the U.S., used by 35.8 million Hispanics in the U.S. plus an additional 2.6 million non-Hispanics. Overall, three-in-four Hispanics (73%) ages 5 and older speak Spanish in their homes, when including those who are bilingual.

Given the expected demographic changes, what is the future of language use among Hispanics in the United States? According to Census Bureau projections, the share of Hispanics who speak only English at home will rise from 26% in 2013 to 34% in 2020. Over this time period, the share who speak Spanish at home will decrease from 73% to 66%.

And as a sign of the times, Spanglish, an informal hybrid of both languages, is widely used among Hispanics ages 16 to 25. Among these young Hispanics, 70% report using Spanglish, according to an analysis we did in 2009..

Half of 2nd Generation Latinos Are Bilingual

% of Hispanic adults who mainly use English, Spanish or both

Note: Foreign born includes persons born outside of the U.S. and those born in Puerto Rico even though those born in Puerto Rico are U.S. citizens. Second generation refers to those born in the U.S. to at least one parent who was born outside the U.S. or in Puerto Rico.

George I. Sanchez: The Long Fight For Mexican American Integration

By Carlos Kevin Blanton

Scholar-activist George I. Sanchez was an effective, relentless and cantankerous Hispanic leader in the fights against the rank racism leveled at Mexican-Americans in New Mexico and Texas from the 1930s through the 1960s. A fervent integrationist, he was a liberal and a champion of socialist education in Mexico (about which he wrote a book). He shaded into cultural nationalism in the 1970s as younger Hispanics labeling themselves Chicanos moved into leadership. Carlos Kevin Blanton, a Texas A&M professor specializing in Chicano and Texas history, in his copious new play-by-play biography calls Sanchez the most important Mexican-American intellectual between the Depression and the Great Society. At The University of Texas during and after Gov. Allan Shivers' domination of the board of regents, Sanchez was punished with low pay for his hostility to the segregation of Hispanic students and his open support of, for example, the liberal U.S. Senator Ralph Yarborough. Eventually, though, the building housing UT's College of Education was named for him. Sanchez, Blanton writes, once said, "... we, Mexican Americans, were betrayed. Screwed, that is," by the United States. Blanton's book should be required reading in Texas as the state's coming Hispanic majority grows into position to control Texas politics.

Chicano While Mormon Activism, War, and Keeping the Faith

Ignacio M. García

This is a memoir of the early years of a well-known Chicano scholar whose work and activism were motivated by his Mormon faith. The narrative follows him as an immigrant boy in San Antonio, Texas, who finds religion, goes to segregated schools, participates in the first major school boycott of the modern era in Texas, goes to Viet Nam where he heads an emergency room in the Mekong Delta, and then to college where he becomes involved in the Chicano Movement. Throughout this time he juggles, struggles, and comes to terms with the religious principles that provide him the foundation for his civil rights struggles and form the core of his moral compass and spiritual beliefs. In the process he pushes back against those religious traditions and customs that he sees as contrary to the most profound aspects of being a Mormon. This memoir is about activism and religion on the ground and reflects the struggles of people of color who are faithful and who engage in a social action that defies simple political terminology.

La Paradoja de La Vida

Dios Creo al Burro y Dijo:

"Serás burro, trabajarás de sol a sol, cargarás sobre tu lomo todo lo que te pongan, y vivirás 30 años."

El burro contestó: "¿Señor, seré todo lo que me pidas pero... 30 años es mucho, por qué no mejor 10?" Y así Dios creó al burro.

Después Dios Creo al Perro y Dijo:

"Serás perro, cuidarás de la casa de los hombres, comerás lo que te den y vivirás 20 años."

El perro contestó: "¿Señor, seré todo lo que me pidas pero... 20 años es mucho, por qué no mejor 10?" Y así Dios creó al perro.

Luego Dios Creo al Mono y Dijo:

"Serás mono, saltarás de árbol en árbol, harás payasadas para divertir a los demás y vivirás 15 años."

El mono contestó: "¿Señor, seré todo lo que me pidas pero... 15 años es mucho por qué no mejor 10?" Y así Dios creó al mono.

Finalmente Dios Creo al Hombre y Le Dijo:

"Serás el más inteligente de la tierra, dominarás al mundo y vivirás 30 años."

El hombre contestó: "¿Señor, seré todo lo que quieras pero... 30 años es poco, por qué no me das los veinte años que no quiso el burro, los 15 años que rechazó el perro y los cinco años que no aceptó el mono?"

Y así es como el hombre vive 30 años como hombre, luego se casa y vive 20 años como burro, trabajando de sol a sol, cargando en su espalda el peso de la familia, luego se jubila y vive 15 años como perro cuidando la casa, comiendo lo que le den y termina viviendo 5 años más como mono, saltando de casa en casa de sus hijos, haciendo payasadas para los nietos.

7 Magic Foods Designed to Keep Your Kidneys Healthy

By Effie Knox, Nutrition Services Manager at Satellite Healthcare in Austin. Satellite Healthcare (www.satellitehealth.com) is a leading not-for-profit provider of kidney dialysis and related services in Austin and across the country. About one in every nine Americans – nearly 100,000 Austin residents – suffer from Chronic Kidney Disease, and one in three are at risk for developing it. Incorporating these seven surprising foods into your diet can work wonders:

Pears

A diet rich in fiber can improve blood sugar control in diabetics and cholesterol levels for those with heart disease, two ailments common among people with kidney disease. Try pears, which deliver an added bonus: pear skin contains quercetin, a flavonol that helps keep the heart and blood vessels healthy. Other fiber-rich foods include apples, cabbage, peas, and berries.

Red Peppers

They not only add a splash of festivity and a flavor boost to your dishes, they pack a punch against the chronic inflammation often associated with kidney disease. Other colorful, nutrient dense foods include red cabbage, grapes and strawberries.

Cauliflower

If you've been told to limit your potassium levels, reach for low-potassium veggies like cauliflower, which also contain phytochemicals and antioxidants known to help our bodies neutralize toxic substances. (Try it mashed!) Other good options include zucchini squash, cabbage and eggplant rather than their higher-potassium counterparts like beans, spinach and tomatoes.

Cranberry Juice

Put down that high-potassium OJ! Research has shown that low-potassium cranberries and cranberry juice can help prevent Urinary Tract Infections, which can lead to kidney infections. Native Americans, who have been using cranberries to fight bladder and kidney problems for many years, knew what they were doing.

Unsalted Popcorn

When too much phosphorous builds up in your blood your kidneys can have a tough time maintaining the right balance – and rising phosphorous levels lead to brittle bones. When snacking, reach for unsalted popcorn, a low-phosphorous, low-calorie treat that has more antioxidants than some produce) instead of high-phosphorous nuts and cheese.

Blueberries

Anti-inflammatory powerhouses due to their sky-high antioxidant levels, blueberries are also rich in many nutrients including vitamin C, vitamin K, bone-health booster manganese and fiber.

Fish

Eating two servings of fish a week can help lower abnormally high levels of protein found in the urine of people afflicted with both diabetes and kidney disease, according to a study in the American Journal of Kidney Diseases. For a kidney-friendly diet, choose fish along with poultry, egg whites, and vegetarian protein like tofu or quinoa rather than red meat.

Word Power

En las palabras hay poder

No one can ever argue in the name of education, that it is better to know less than it is to know more. Being bilingual or trilingual or multilingual is about being educated in the 21st century. We look forward to bringing our readers various word lists in each issue of La Voz.

Nadie puede averiguar en el nombre de la educación que es mejor saber menos que saber más. Siendo bilingüe o trilingüe es parte de ser educado en el siglo 21. Esperamos traer cada mes a nuestros lectores de La Voz una lista de palabras en español con sus equivalentes en inglés.
